STUDYING AT UPMC

UPMC FACULTIES AND INSTITUTES

The University is composed of seven departments and faculties (UFR - units of teaching and research) in:

- Chemistry
- Engineering
- Mathematics
- Medicine
- Physics
- Life sciences
- Earth sciences, Environment and Biodiversity

It also includes the Polytech'Paris UPMC engineering school, the Paris Institute of Astrophysics, the Henri Poincaré Institute and three marine stations in Roscoff, Banyuls and Villefranche-sur-Mer that have Universe Sciences Observatory (OSU) status. UPMC also has the IFD (Institute for doctoral education). Within the faculty of mathematics is ISUP, the top school for statistics in France.

For more information on topics covered in each degree program, visit our website:

STUDYING AT UPMC

Since the beginning of 2004/2005 and as part of the European framework of higher education, UPMC has applied the new “L M D” system, which stands for Bachelor’s (Licence) - Master’s - Doctorate. The studies are composed of 3 levels

- Bachelor’s program, 3 years, 180 credits
- Master’s program, 2 years, 120 credits
- Doctorate program, 3 years

Science studies at UPMC

Each academic year is organised into two semesters of 30 teaching credits each and composed of several teaching units.

Medical studies at UPMC

Students cannot enroll directly in medical studies in France. Students that have already started medical studies abroad and who wish to continue in France are required to enroll in the 1st year.

However, Medical students in a European Union member country may, during their last year of the second cycle of medical studies, register for the national competitive exams (ECN). Taking this exam, depending on the ranking achieved, will give access to the 3rd cycle of studies in medical specialties.

You can find more information at the following address: www.cng.sante.fr/Concours-special-a-titre-europeen.html (in French)

For more information on topics covered in each degree program, visit our website:

STUDENT VISA & TITRE DE SÉJOUR (RESIDENCE PERMIT)

Who needs a student visa:
- All non-European students (non-citizens of countries in the European Union, the European Economic Area or the Swiss Confederation)

Type of student visa:
- Short-stay student visa (visa C): study in France for no longer than 3 months. This visa is not renewable in France.
- The long-stay student visa (visa D): study in France for periods longer than 3 months. This visa will be valid for one year after the medical visit organized by the immigration office in France. In the second year, students will have to apply for a titre de séjour (resident's permit) at the local police station ("prefecture").

Documents required for visa: (not exhaustive, see French consulate for full listing)
- Visa application form (see local French consulate for form)
- Passport valid for the duration of the visa
- Proof of pre-enrolment at UPMC
- Proof of sufficient funding during stay
- Proof of accommodation in Paris

How to obtain the visa:
- The application form and instructions are available from the French consulate ("CEF")
- Online on the Campus France website: www.campusfrance.org/fr/b-agence/map/map.htm for students living in Algeria, Benin, Brazil, Cameroon, Canada, China, Colombia, Congo, South Korea, United States, Gabon, Guinea, India, Japan, Lebanon, Madagascar, Mali, Morocco, Mauritius, Mexico, Russia, Senegal, Syria, Taiwan, Tunisia, Turkey or Vietnam

The Immigration office in France
With the visa, students receive a white form for the immigration office at the French embassy in their home country. Applicants need to send this form to the Immigration Office (OFII) once they arrive in France. A photocopy of the passport and the visa must be attached. The addresses of the different OFII are on the back of the form. Those who live in Paris can either send it to the OFII or to the Cité Internationale Universitaire de Paris (CIUP) between September and December. The address is also indicated on the form.

Upon receipt of the application, the OFII will set up an appointment for a medical examination. For those who submit their application during the academic year at the CIUP, the acknowledgement of their application and their appointment for a medical examination will be given directly on site.

There is a cost of 58€ (students) for the titre de séjour and 241€ (for a scientific researcher). After payment and the medical visit, the OFII will stamp a visa confirming the titre de séjour for a year or for the validity dates on the visa.

Titre de séjour (Residence permit)
- Students who are staying for more than one year in France must apply for a titre de séjour in the second year of their stay. They must do this at the local police station ("prefecture") within the last 2 months of their valid visa.
- Most of the prefectures have established a system on the Internet where applicants can get an appointment for their titre de séjour. They must not go to the prefecture without an appointment because they may wait in line yet be turned away if they do not have an appointment.
- When students need help with the titre de séjour in their second year, they can contact the “Bureau d’accueil” of the International Relations office (the Welcome Office) for help.

Work permit
International applicants holding a titre de séjour temporaire marked "étudiant" can carry out paid professional activities in France without a work permit. This activity must be a secondary activity to studies, and no more than 964 hours worked annually. The possession of a student card qualifies a student to work in any sector in France. For more information, go to: http://vosdroits.service-public.fr

Civil Liability (Responsabilité civile)
This document is compulsory in order to register at UPMC. According to French law, everyone in the territory should be in possession of this document. Most often when students ask for housing insurance, they should be given a civil liability option at part of the contract.
ADMINISTRATIVE REGISTRATION

Students coming to UPMC as part of an exchange program (see appendix)

Depending on their status and their exchange program, students may need to complete an administrative registration. If it is not clear whether an administrative registration is necessary, the program coordinators are able to give the requirements for their program.

Students coming on an individual status

International applicants should register online first and then enroll at the “scolarité” office. Students must pay their tuition fees at the time of registration at UPMC to complete the process.

REGISTRATION FOR FRENCH COURSES

Learn French as foreign language

Pierre and Marie Curie University (UPMC) is a scientific and medical university. Consequently, degrees in French language and French culture are not available.

Before starting studies in French at the University, it’s essential to have a sufficient level (both written and oral).

However, foreign students enrolled at UPMC who need linguistic assistance can benefit from our French courses. These courses take place on the campus and are adapted to the student’s schedule. French classes over the academic year 2015-2016 are available: between 2 hours and 7 hours a week during one or two semesters, depending on the student’s initial level (estimated by a compulsory placement test).

Courses are free for masters and undergraduate students.

An intensive French course is planned in January and in June

[2 hours a day for 3 weeks] at the price of 250 euros.

French courses as a foreign language can be validated as optional course units (UE) and can be awarded ECTS credits. Registration by e-mail only: coursdefrancais@upmc.fr

Health insurance in France is required for all students under the age of 28.

European students

Students coming from one of the 27 member states of the European Union, from the economic European area, or from the Swiss Confederation should apply for the European healthcare card. This card is proof that they have a health insurance in their country. The CEAM (Carte européenne d’assurance maladie) will enable them to be reimbursed for their medical costs in France. Students must ask for this card from the administration in charge of their health insurance in their country.

Students who have European health insurance, won’t need to take a complementary insurance in France. Required documents to be reimbursed:

- A copy of the European healthcard
- A copy of the student card
- A copy of the receipt and prescriptions
- Address in France and date of arrival in France
- Bank account information or RIB
- Healthcare report sheets

Reimbursements must be addressed to the CPAM of Paris international relations office, Rue de Bercy, Paris.

Student Health Insurance

Students under the age of 28 who don’t have a European Health Insurance card must pay for health insurance ("Securité sociale") when registering at UPMC. If they want, students with health issues can also sign up for complementary insurance in order to have additional coverage for particularly costly healthcare needs.

The student insurance companies LMDE (la mutuelle des étudiants) or Smerep (société mutualiste des étudiants de la région parisienne) have offices located near the Jussieu campus so that students will be able to go for all the information to compare coverage.

MEDICAL CENTERS

UPMC preventive medicine and promotion of good health offices (medical and psychological) and student social services are also available to assist in case of difficulties, including:

- Health problems, doubts about life balance, questions about relationships, worries about the future or if applicants repeatedly find themselves in situations of failure.
- Medical certificates can also be obtained
- Difficult family situations, financial, material or other troubles

The UPMC website:

Relais Social International

Organised by professionals, this agency enables students to meet with psychologists and a professor who can listen to personal and university problems. These people are there to help students to accomplish their projects and are available to give counselling free of charge, by appointment and if desired, anonymously. Furthermore, this includes an administrative facility to assist students in obtaining a carte de séjour (residence permit) and financial aid for housing.

Centre de Santé Saint Michel

This medical center is quite close to the University. It provides low-cost access to physicians or specialists.

ESSENTIAL QUESTIONS TO CONSIDER BEFORE RENTING

- How many rooms? (a studio, a T1 or a T2?)
- Is the apartment furnished or unfurnished?
- How much is the rent?
- Are the water and electric bills included in the rent or charged separately?
- Is there a guarantee or agency fee to pay?
- Studio = accommodation comprising of a single room used as a bedroom, living room, kitchen, bathroom/WC.
- T1 = Accommodation composed of a principal room, with separate kitchen and bathroom/WC.
- T2 = Accommodation composed of two rooms + kitchen + bathroom/WC.
- CC = “Charges comprises” included in rent: building maintenance, water.
- Equipé = Accommodation with an equipped kitchen (at the least, refrigerator, sink, hot plates, pots, pans and dishes).
- Meublé = Accommodation with minimal furniture (bed, table, chairs).
- Duplex = Accommodation on two floors, with an internal staircase.

MORE INFORMATION

Terms of a lease
In the Paris region, landlords ask for a guarantee of 1-month rent and a guarantor who can ensure payment on behalf.

Sometimes the landlord can demand a guarantor who lives in the Ile de France. For more information: www.locapass.com.

Methods of payment in France
In France, payment by French checks and/or debit/credit card is the most common (for example to pay rent).
For more information: www.adele.org

Insurance
Students must have housing insurance. Two French student insurance organisations, LMDE and SMEREP, offer insurance for approximately 50 €/year.
Banks can also offer a housing insurance. Some housing insurances include a “responsabilité civile” insurance [important to register at UPME].
www.lmde.com
www.smerep.fr

Financial aid for accommodation
A Personalised Aid for Accommodation (Une Aide Personnalisée au Logement – APL) can be awarded by the Caisse d’Allocations Familiales de Paris (CAF) for students. APL is calculated depending on resources, the family situation and the rent.
The form for the student accommodation aid is available on the website: www.caf.fr

For the online application to be taken into account, applicants must
• be a student
• rent the accommodation and be the lease holder (if students share accommodation, then each person with their name on the contract must apply for the aid)
• not have a dependant child

Attention: Non European students must hold a titre de séjour (residence permit) valid for at least 3 months.

Life in UPMC

Campus Restaurants - CROUS
CROUS (centres régionaux des œuvres universitaires et scolaires) manages the university restaurants (resto U). There are 14 university restaurants and 23 CROUS cafeterias in Paris offering a range of menus. The UPMC student card gives access to all restos U in the region. Certain restaurants are open in the evenings, weekends and during the holidays.

Cost of a meal at resto U: 3.15 €

For more information see the website:
www.crous-paris.fr/article.asp?idcat=AAA

Libraries

UPMC libraries offer a set of collections and services. The Jussieu Inter-university Science Library and the SCDM (Common Medical Reference Service) provide access to a large number of scientific and biomedical databases as well as a vast choice of unabridged journals and electronic books. For more information:

Internet Access

There are various access points at UPMC:
WiFi zones:
Computer Rooms:
www.upmc.fr/en/campus_life_section/internet_access/ut_s_usage_des_technologies_educatives_en_science_educational_technologies_for_science_rooms.html

Sports

Physical and sports activities at UPMC are provided by two different but complementary structures:
The Department of Physical and Sports Activities (DAPS; Département des Activités Physiques et Sportives), a UPMC teaching department, organises personal training courses for all. Traineeships and approved certificate courses are supervised by physical and sports education teachers who are also responsible for the majority of competition training. Students can benefit from these activities for free.

The UPMC Sports Association (AS; Association sportive) [AS-UPMC], a non-profit association, manages university competitions with the French Federation of University Sports (FFSU; Fédération française du sport universitaire) and organises recreational activities.

Disability

The Disability Support Service (Relais Handicap Santé), part of the Student Life Department, is dedicated to assisting and supporting students with disabilities or health problems. Further information regarding their services can be found at Foreign students associations

Some interesting and useful associations:

Les Internationaux de l’UPMC:
This UPMC association aims to bring together international and French students participating in international mobility to exchange their experiences and help one another. They organize campus orientations and meet on a regular basis. They also organize social events such as excursions to local tourist sites. To join the association, visit their site on facebook or send them an email.
www.facebook.com/groups/les.internationaux.upmc/
les.internationaux.upmc@gmail.com

Erasmus Mundus Association:
The Erasmus Mundus Students and Alumni Association serves the interests of Erasmus Mundus Students and Alumni, notably by providing a forum for networking, communication and collaboration and by promoting Erasmus Mundus as a European programme of excellence in international education.

Life in Paris

Bank account
It is advised for long term stays to open a French bank account. To open an account, make an appointment at the bank and present the following documents:
- Passport
- Proof of domicile in France
- Proof of enrolment at UPMC

Upon opening their account, students should ask for a check book and/or a bank debit card (carte bleue). Check books are normally free. But clients have to pay about 30 to 40 € for the card per year. A receipt showing account details is provided as well. These details will be required for many transactions, such as setting up standing orders, monthly allowance transfer... There are many banks located within the vicinity of the campus.

Living Expenses
The main living expenses include rent, food and transport. The average monthly student budget is 1000€ in Paris. Some typical prices in Paris
- A baguette: 1€
- A croissant: 1€
- A coffee: 2€
- A sandwich: approx 5€
- A complete menu at a restaurant: between 15€ and 20€ minimum
- A post stamp: 0.76€
- A cinema ticket: 10€ (prices may vary)

Paris Public Transport
www.ratp.fr
Paris public transport is operated by the RATP and includes the métro system, RER trains, buses, night buses, Montmartrobus, and the Montmartre funicular railway, all of which accept the same tickets and passes.

Types of Tickets (zone 1 Paris)
- Individual tickets: 1.80 €
- Books of ten tickets: 14.10 €
- Passe Navigo: Weekly 20.40 €, monthly 67.10 € or annual 679.80 €
- From September 70 € /per month excepted unlimited zones

Students can have access to cheaper prices with the “Carte ImaginR”. Please see the website for more information:
